

Heroes

Specific focus: Police

W/C: 22nd June 2020

This week our topic is all about heroes. We are focusing on the police and what a fantastic job they do to help our community.

Subject: Music

Activity Outcome: Create a rap dedicated to the police

Explain: You are going to write down the lyrics of a rap, practise it and then perform it to your family. Your lyrics must be based on the police and what a fantastic job they do. I have given you an example that can start your rap off if you are struggling for ideas. Your rap does not have to rhyme. Your rap must be at least 10 lines long but you may wish to do more. Use the website below to help give you inspiration for your rap.

The police are the best,

They never get a rest.

They lock up those who do crime

This is the start of my rhyme.

Activity Outcome: Design a new badge for the police

Explain: You are going to design a new badge for the police that they can wear on their uniform. Follow the steps below to create your badge. You can choose to use paper or card for your badge.

Step 1: Choose a shape for your badge and draw it out e.g. circle, rectangle, diamond etc

Step 2: Cut out your shape carefully with scissors

Step 3: Choose a background colour for your badge and colour (or paint) it in

Step 4: Add in a motto at the bottom of the badge e.g. Aspire, Believe, Succeed (this is our school motto). A motto is a short phrase that describes the belief or idea of an organisation.

Step 5: Add any pictures/patterns that you wish to include. Make it as colourful and as detailed as possible.

I have given you some examples on the next page.

Subject: ICT

Activity Outcome: Create a presentation that illustrates who the police are and what they are all about.

Explain: You are going to imagine that your family do not know who the police are. You must create a presentation on the police, telling your family all about them.

You must include:

- A title slide
- Who are the police
- What do they do
- Equipment they might use
- Different departments within the police
- Any other interesting facts you want to include

Use the websites below to help you with your research and use the YouTube video to help you create your presentation.

Activity Outcome: Create your own set of rules

Explain: You are going to imagine you are a police officer. You are going to create a set of rules that everybody must follow. Be as creative as you like but remember to be fair. Display your rules on an A4 piece of paper and decorate them with pictures and colours. Think about crimes that should not be committed as a basis for your rules e.g. do not steal. You may want to base your rules around some of the ten commandments which can be found on the website listed below.
