

Answers – Monday spelling – Inter

Sample Answers

- We enjoyed the orchestra's interlude during the school play.
- The children were all intermediate gymnasts.
- The astronaut sent an intergalactic SOS as his shuttle hurled through space.
- The zookeeper was very happy with how the new gorilla seemed to interact with the others.
- "Please do not interfere with the wires." The electrician said.
- Miss McDonald caught the 9:02 intercity to Birmingham.
- The beagle won first place at the international dog show.
- Clara was moved up to the intermediate swimming class.
- We used the Internet to research our homework.
- Intergalactic space travel may be a possibility but not for many years.
- "I am fed up with people who interrupt me when I am working!" Snarled Gina.
- It was necessary for the Y6 playtime buddy to intervene to prevent a fight.
- There was a brief interlude while the stage was altered.
- The police officer was forced to intervene to prevent injury.
- "Please don't interfere with me project," the boy pleaded with his eager father.
- The international airline is on strike so Mr Whoops cannot go on holiday.
- The boy's birthday cake was an intercity train.
- "Please do not interrupt me when I am speaking." The lady said quietly.
- We sign an Internet Safety Policy at school to ensure we use it correctly.
- It is lovely to see how the puppies interact.

Adding the Prefix Inter-

interact	internet
interfere	intergalactic
intercity	interrupt
international	intervene
intermediate	interlude

Here are four more questions which I am not sure of the answer to so I need your help as a text detective. Can you find any clues in the story to help you? What do you think the answers are and why?

Tuesday – Reading

QUIZ QUESTIONS

Name 3 (or more) things that Sammy noticed about the bookshop:

Intricate lanterns, peculiar smoke, tall, thin chimney stack, ivy covering the walls and windows, no bell or door knocker, note on the door, very small and sandwiched between a bike shop and restaurant, inside the shop was huge, lots of books, dusty.

What was the title of the book that he picked up and where was it?

'Tree Goblins' and it was on a high shelf.

Name 5 (or more) things that Sammy saw when he entered the birthday party:

Banners / balloons / bunting / willow table / great feast / you could list all of the food / strange people.

Whose birthday party was it and how old was he?

Treegruttle. 203

What did Treerumple give Sammy as a gift?

A necklace.

Why did Sammy's Grandmama want to visit the town?

To go to the post office.

1) Why do you think the title of the story is called: The Impossibly Possible Bookshop?

The store could be called this because impossible things happen in an ordinary place. Any answers that make sense here could be allowed.

2) Do you think Sammy is adventurous? Explain your answer.

Sammy is adventurous because he ignored the warnings given to him and still explores the bookshop and then the Goblin world.

3) When Sammy returns to the bookshop and meets his Grandmama, it seems as though no time has passed at all. Why do you think this is?

Any answers relating to – magic changing time

- Day dreaming.

4) At the end of the story, Sammy's Grandmama says: "We'll see ... anything is possible." Why do you think she says this?

Answers that suggest: Grandma knows about the magic book shop.

Makes links with the seemingly impossible events in the shop.

Answers

Wednesday – vocab

extraordinary	something that is very unusual or remarkable - more than just being ordinary.
unusual	something that is different, doesn't always happen or is a bit out of the ordinary curiosity	when you really want to know or learn something intricate	complicated or detailed peculiar	something that is a bit strange, odd or different from normal insignificant	small or not important precariously	when something is not secure and is likely to fall or collapse
rickety	poorly made and likely to break
embossed	carved or stamped into something
disheveled	untidy
tweed	rough surface woollen cloth: lots of clothes, especially trousers and waistcoats, are made from this trinkets	small ornament or a little piece of jewellery which is often not very expensive