

Week commencing 27th April Answer sheets

Monday – Spelling

Tuesday – Reading Comprehension

- 1) The other boys do not like Hiccup. Find 2 pieces of evidence that support this view. (Pages 2 and 3)

They say “Oh no not Hiccup” and they call him “useless”.

- 2) How can you tell that Gobbler is a fearsome, intimidating Viking? (Page 3)

Every time Gobbler speaks they use words like roared. Gobbler’s description gives us this picture. He is a seven giant with a mad glint in his eye. He is strong because he has bulging muscles. He is also brave/sturdy as he is wearing very little clothes in the freezing temperatures.

- 3) Hiccup is scared of catching his dragon. How can you tell? (Page 4)

We know Hiccup is scared of catching his dragon because it says he is thinking ‘oh suffering scallops’. This is similar to thinking ‘oh no’.

- 4) Why is catching a dragon so important to the Hooligan tribe?
(Page 4)

Catching a dragon is important as you have to be able to catch a dragon to be part of the tribe.

Wednesday – Grammar

1A) Some	1B) Pears: Could be used - the my your some Could not be used –an a
2A) Some _ anything plural_ like cats. A – something singular like cat. My plural or singular cat/cats	2B - His toast is cooked perfectly.
3A) an distant lighthouse. It should say a	3B) an ant A pear
4B) Ship: Could be used - a the my your Could not be used –an some	4B) Here are some pears