Weekly School Newsletter

29th April 2022

Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope that everyone had a lovely restful Easter break. With this last term ahead, there will be lots happening, so please see the diary with planned trips and other events.

Eid Day: Families that are celebrating Eid next week will have one day as religious observance (authorised absence), depending on which day Eid falls on. Have a lovely Eid day with your families.

On the 18th May – children will be having a delicious Eid Dinner in school. If your child would like an Eid dinner, please remember to hand in the reply slip and pay for this on Parent Pay. A copy of the letter can be found on the school website.

Bank Holiday: Remember school is closed next week on Monday as it will be the Monday Bank Holiday.

Thursday 5th May (Voting day): School is open.

Hall Expansion Update: Thank you for your support in helping us manage the system that we have whilst the builders are on site. We are on schedule with the construction work being carried out. The aim is for the work to be completed by the end of August 2022 so that it is ready for September 2022.

Friday school finish time: We currently close at 12:55pm on Friday afternoons (EYFS 12.50pm) and considering to change this time to 1pm for a number of logistics reasons from Friday 6th May 2022. A final decision will be made next Wednesday and we shall let you know.

Book Swap Shop: The Book Swap Shop continues to be a success week-on-week.

EYFS: You will be able to bring a book to swap on Friday 6th May.

Following this, the Book Swap Shop will change slightly and anyone in any year group will be able to swap a book on a Friday.

Facts and Stats 'Prosody' Competition: Thank you to all of the children who entered April's Prosody competition – all about facts and stats. Mr. Douglas had 33 children enter! The winner will be announced next week and more details on May's Prosody competition will follow.

Who has been showing great teamwork this week?
